The image shows a screenshot of the WeTransfer website's user interface. At the top, there are navigation links: "About us", "Questions", and "WeTransfer Plus". The main heading reads "Sending files has never been easier." Below this, a vertical sidebar on the left contains the WeTransfer logo. The central content area features a form titled "Send up to 2 GB" with four input fields: "+ Add files", "Friend's email", "Your email address", and "Message". At the bottom of the form are a share icon and a "Transfer" button. Blue lines connect these elements to instructional text on the right. The text includes: "Just go to wetransfer.com."; "Click on the + sign and add the files you want to send."; "Type in the email address of the person you're sending the files to."; "Now type in your own email address."; "Write a short message, if you want."; "Then simply hit the transfer button and you're done. It's simple, secure and free of charge."; "Told you it was easy."; and "Click on the share button to change the way you send/receive the transfer - email or download link (free), Facebook or Twitter (Plus account)."
